EX-MAYOR J. S. TREAT.
Dies at His Late Home Early
Last Evening.

Was a Large-Hearted Man With Hosts
of Warm Friends

The news of the death of Hon. John S. Treat, which spread over the city this morning, was learned with deep regret, and his loss will be felt among the citizens generally. He was a citizen highly re- spected and for years was prominent in public affairs, and in his connection with many societies it kept him constantly be- fore the people.

John Sheldon Treat was born in Portsmouth, August 14th, 1837. He received a good education in the public schools of this city and at Phillips Exeter academy. On leaving school he learned the marble and stone cutter's trade at his father's establishment in Portsmouth, and in 1855 went to Richmond, Va., where he worked at his trade until 1858, when he located in Mobile, Ala., forming a partnership with R. Bruce and W. R. Crow, under the firm name of Treat & Crow, and established marble yards, both there and at Meri- den and Livingston, in the same state, carrying on a good business until the breaking out of the war of the Rebellion. During Mr. Treat's residence in the South he made many strong friendships, and with the en- thusiasm of a young man he enlisted on the side of the Confederacy.

In 1861 he joined Co. B, Second Bat- talion, Alabama light artillery, was pro- moted to second lieutenant and was with his battery in actual service throughout the war, surrendering at Demopolis, Ala., at the close of the war. In the broken and devastated condition of the south, ruined by the scourge of war, there was little chance then for success in the bu- siness, and after a brief stay in New Or- leans, he returned to the city. In 1876 he purchased his father's business and until his death was proprietor of the Portsmouth Marble and Granite works, which is the oldest establishment of its kind in New England, having existed since 1768, and been controlled by one family for ninety years. Captain Treat was married September 23d, 1871, to Sarah Millard Osborne, daughter of Charles B. and Mary Sheafe Osborne, of Rye. In politics he was a democrat and took a prominent part in the councils of his party in New Hampshire. He was elected senator from the twenty-fourth district for the term of 1881-1882. In the latter year he was elected mayor of Portsmouth and in 1883 was re-elected to the same office. While mayor, he received the Greeley ex- pedition on its return from the frozen north, besides taking a leading part in other public functions, including the last return of the sons of Portsmouth and the grand firemen's muster.

Captain Treat was president of the Portsmouth Temperance Reform club in 1881, which office he held for one year, during which time two thousand six hundred signed the pledge, a large number of them being hard drinkers. By virtue of ancestral lineage, Capt. Treat became a member of the Massachusetts society of Sons of the American Revolution, the Society of Colonial Wars in New Hamp- shire, the Society of Descendants of Col- onial Governors and the Paul Jones' club. He was a member of St. John's lodge, A. F. & A. M.; Washington Chapter, No. 3, Royal Arch Masons; Davenport Council, No. 3, R. and S. M.; DeWitt Clinton Commandery, K. T., and Beasor Senate, No. 602, K. A. E. O.

Capt. Treat had a kind and loving dis- position, a pleasant smile, a cheerful word, and a hand ever ready for those in dis- tress. It is the prevailing opinion that no one in Portsmouth will be more sorrow- fully missed than Hon. John Sheldon Treat. He leaves a wife, mother, sister, brother, and a friend in everyone, to mourn his loss.

Amputation for a Lifetime.
The schooner George Berry, Captain Tuttle, which arrived in the lower harbor last evening from New York, was met by the tug Howell, and soon after was tied up at the navy yard. It is not generally known, but the Berry has as a cargo 338 tons of coal, and 265 cases of ammunition for the U. S. S. Alliance, and the work of transferring the same commenced early this morning.

PERSONALS.
C. E. Boynton was a visitor in Boston today.
Mrs. E. M. Fisher is on a short visit to friends in Boston.

Mr. Arthur W. Williams was in Bos- ton today on business.

E. B. Bailey of Burlington, Vt., was a visitor in town today.

Hon. Frank Jones was a passenger on the 7:20 train for Boston this morning.

W. E. Chas. E. the Market street gro- cer, was in Boston yesterday on business.

Rev. and Mrs. William Wood of Port- land, were in town today. Mr. Wood was formerly pastor of the Second Meth- odist church in Kittery.

The marriage of Miss Frankie M. Os- borne, youngest daughter of Mr. Frank Osborne of Kittery, to Mr. James W. Ed- gar of Manchester will take place today.

R. G. Pray, manager of the "Tarry- town Widow" company, was in town to- day making arrangements for the produc- tion of the play in Music hall next Tues- day evening.

Republicans Enthused.
The city building and vicinity was a lively place last evening a large crowd gathering there to receive the official re- turns from the municipal election.

After the complete vote had been figured out line was formed and headed by the Kearseville Flute and Drum band march was taken up to the depot where Mayor-elect Tilton was given an ovation as he stepped from the aisle of the Pullman. Mr. Gerald and Mayor-elect Tilton were hustled into a baggage truck and then when the cheers had subsided the former made a short speech.

From the depot the crowd marched to the residence of the Mayor-elect on Wil- burt street where that gentleman was forced to make a speech before the pro- cession would move on to the residences of the other successful candidates.

Notes of the Election.

The Herald's advice to the voters, that they vote just as they please, was a popular remark at the ward rooms.

The candidates for city offices are get- ting in their work.

The contest for street commissioner will be lively and it will be between Rienz Ridge, John Leavitt and Joseph Hett.

They had a regular old time family jar down in ward four.

S. P. Emery and John W. Kelly are candidates for city solicitor.

Fred L. Martin, the popular jeweler, represents the Athletic club in the city government.

Mayor-elect Tilton has received many callers today.

All the present city officials are candi- dates for re-election.

River and Harbor.

Steamer Pottsville, Hanson, arrived yesterday from Philadelphia with 1600 tons of coal for J. A. and A. W. Walker.

Schooner Sarah A. Palmer, Whittier, cleared for Lonsburg this morning to load coal for this port.

Tug Kate Jones, Evans, arrived in the lower harbor this morning with the float- ing derrick Tilly in tow.

The river men have commenced to get their small boats painted and repaired so as to have them in readiness for the first warm spell.

Steamer Shannett, Fuller, arrived this morning from Newport News with 2000 tons of coal for the Walkers.

The schooner George Berry, Tuttle, arrived last evening from New York with 338 tons of coal for the navy yard, con- signed through Gray and Prime.

"Tribby" is With Us

The derrick now "Tribby," is charge of Captain Stevenson, arrived here last evening in tow of the tug Kate Jones. The screw is to be used in transferring the mammoth guns and carriages that are to be used in the new fortifications at New- castle. The derrick is a powerful one and is capable of lifting the huge guns bodily from the cars and place them in the row. The guns and carriages ar- rived here by rail and the cars will be run right onto the wharf alongside of which the Tribby is tied up. A gang of men are employed at the fort making ready to place the guns in position im- mediately on their arrival.

Served on a Demeanor

On Monday afternoon Judge Calvin Page served a petition of quo warranto on Ald. William H. Newick summoning him to appear before the supreme court in Exeter on the second Tuesday in April to explain by what right he had to serve on the board of aldermen after he had moved from the ward in which he was elected.

YORK-ME.
With this issue the Herald will come to York Village and vicinity. It will be on sale at the postoffice and after you get to like it, the paper will be delivered at your home for 40 cents a month. To- night's paper is given you free. A first- class daily of news will be furnished and if you want the paper that is readable just buy the Herald.

The republican caucus comes tonight and there is going to be a hot time in the old town tonight. There is a large crowd that are going to do their best to upset the present board of officers. The present board of officers have done well, they will receive the approbation of a handsome majority of their townsmen too, as far as can be calculated. Another important official is the road commissioner Josiah W. Norton is the popular candidate. Elec- tion comes next Monday.

St. Aspinquid lodge, F. and A. M. worked the third degree last evening.
W. M. Walker has a fine lot of men and boys' clothing to close out at a great deal less than cost.

The K. P. are arranging to hold a re- ligious service at the Congregational church before long.

The Golden Cross held a very pleasant and profitable meeting last Monday night.

The new addition that is being put on to the postoffice building will be a great improvement to the old quarters.

Perhaps the general run of our people are not pleased over the electric road ser- vice. York Harbor village and corner would be big no good if it wasn't for such easy communications with the city up the river.

Quite a crowd of our good citizens made a trip to Old Strawberry Bank this morning.

H. L. Evans will soon go to New York to establish the York Bureau of Informa- tion. Mrs. Evans goes with him.

J. E. Staples has a very pretty plan of the harbor and beach cottages.

The Buena Vista cottage at York Heights is being roofed in. Edward Baker, the con- tractor has located another house.

F. W. Bissell is a very busy man with all his business.

The good people here don't seem to be at all fearful over the war that is exten- sive for inland towns. Brave folks they are around here.

York village is going to have a steam laundry owned and operated by three of her energetic young business men. The building will be situated near the York Harbor station, will have all modern im- provements and will not only be an ornament to the town but a credit to the various industries.

Business here is going to start in with a rush if all prospects are true. Several cottages at the harbor have been let so quick, and it is a very pleasing thing for it is early in the season for calls in this line.

Reflections of a Bachelor

Half of a man's kissing is habit and the other half is hygiene.

A man is generally willing to tell his wife all about a good thing that he thinks she is likely to do out of his way.

When a man dines it is time to let the farce go; the first thing he thinks of when he wakes up is fly-creens.

The hard man to play poker with isn't the one to look sad with a full house, but the one who can look glad with a ace high.

A woman is never quite so genuinely happy as when she has found out some- thing against a man that she can forgive him for.

There would be less trouble if mothers knew as much about their husbands' daughters as they think they do about their daughters' husbands.—New York Press.

At Fort Constitution

Two vessels are now docked at Fort Constitution, one having discharged a cargo of cement and the other being loaded with condemned cement. Every eighth barrel unloaded is tested by a government inspector. If satisfactory the cargo is passed; if not, it is returned as useless. A large number of Italians are employed on the work. Tomorrow the contractor, Capt. Alfred Sorensen, Boston, will arrive here with a large barge, upon which, by means of a 100-ton derrick, he will at once load the gun carriage now at the depot and re- move the same to Newcastle, where it will be placed in position. Sentinels are sta- tioned in post-entrances to the reservation and no one beside the proper authorities is allowed to enter.

Died in Exile

Mrs. Mary A. Junkins, a native of Eliot, died in that town this morning aged 74 years and one month. She leaves a son and one daughter besides a large circle of friends a mourn for her.

Newington.
With the exception of the Sept. of burying grounds the republicans of New- ington elected their entire ticket yester- day as follows:

Town Clerk, Marcus M. Hoyt.
Selectmen, Assessors, and Overseers of the Poor, John M. Moulton; Louis C. Beane; Frank L. Whidden.

Treasurer, Granville W. Knox.
Collector of Taxes, Thomas Newick.

Superintendent of Burying Ground, Enoch Coleman.

Highway Agents, Joseph S. Hoyt, Cyrus Frink, Charles A. Dame.

Janitor of Town Hall, Albert F. Dar- gis.

Auditors, Benjamin S. Hoyt, George W. Pickering.

Library Trustee, Sarah F. deRoche- mont.

LYE.

The following officers were elected on Tuesday, March 8th:

Town clerk, Blake H. Rand, republican;

Treasurer, Joseph A. Brown, democrat;

Selectmen, Albert C. Locke, Oren S. Green, Gilman D. Trefethen, all demo- crats, elected by a majority of five.

Highway Agents, Cornelius O. Phil- brook, Albert Rand, George H. Brown, all republicans.

Newcastle.

Newcastle on Tuesday elected the same board as last year, as follows:

Selectmen, Fred Bell, Moses R. Curtis, republicans, John W. Prudham, democrat.

Clerk, Frank A. Brown, republican.

Treasurer, W. I. Haywood, democrat.

Assessors, Charles E. Campbell, Wil- liam T. Meloon, republican.

The selectmen were chosen overseers of the poor.

Collector of Taxes, Robert F. White.

Fish and Game Warden, Oliver V. Ran- dall.

Newfields.

The republicans succeeded in electing all their candidates for town officers. The principal contest was on selectmen. The old board was finally elected by a close vote. The officers chosen are: Clerk, R. J. Fessenden; selectmen, Daniel C. Wig- gin, Daniel J. Lynch and Frank P. Neal; treasurer, Charles H. S. Sargent; tax col- lector, Herbert W. Smith; highway agent, Nathan G. Howard; auditor, Frank C. Neal; constable, Charles E. Durell.

The amount of $4600 was raised for town expenses. This sum is sufficient to wipe out the town debt.

The Twelve Temptations.

This brilliant attraction which comes to Music hall this Wednesday evening, is thus spoken of by the Chicago Tribune: "At the Haymarket last evening a pro- duction of spectacular, very pretentious, was given to the patrons of this West Side theatre. It was the fifth edition of Chas. H. Yale's dramatic, pantomime and ballet spectacle. Since presented here last, the piece has undergone such a thorough re- vision that one can scarcely recognize it to its new dress. The story has been changed, as also the pantomime charac- ters, the ballets, the specialties and the scenery. The costumes were rich and tasteful, the songs original and catchy, while the machinery and mechanical con- trivances were very effective. There is no question but what the Haymarket is in for one of its largest weeks of the season."

Capable of Doing Their Duty.

The men elected to represent the tax payers for the ensuing year are all men competent to administer the affairs of the city fairly, and to the satisfaction of all. Mayor-elect Tilton has had valuable ex- perience as an alderman, and he has the reputation of getting more work done in his departments for the same money expend- ed than any previous chairman for years. There is no reason why they should not give the citizens a good clean business administration.

Misses Henrietta and Mary Poyser of this city are guests at Albert Poyser's in Saco.

ST. ASPINQUID PARK.

York Beach to Haven Big Picture Park.

The plan of buildings to be erected at the new park near Lonsburg has just been completed by F. T. Leut of Boston, and have been submitted to H. L. Evans, the owner and proprietor for approval. The park grounds comprise about twenty acres of land, covered in part by a fine hard wood and spruce growth, and field, which will be made into lawns and walks. A fence will enclose the grounds.

The entrance is a most artistic piece of work. Four stone columns, made of field stone, with covered arch, with key stone, in which is cut the name, "St. Aspinquid Park, 1898." Erected on the Key stone will be a statue of St. Aspinquid himself, with a raised tomahawk in one hand, an extended in the other the Bible, in bronze.

Of the buildings, the Casino is 60x100 feet, with 12ft. piazza on three sides. The centre will be the dance floor, with a space of 40x80 feet. In the easterly end a stage 25x40 feet. The floor shows a very fine elevation.

The Cafe 36x80 with twelve ft. veranda. Kitchen and dining room where fish dinners will be served. Mr. Chas. Broadson of Boston has now the refusal of it for the season. It is so arranged that one hundred and fifty plates can be laid, with a good lunch counter attached.

The third building is a circular shape with two hundred and fifty ft. circle which walls are decorated with a fine veranda with eight feet pictures. The centre will be used for seats for the patrons. In the centre a tower extending above the roof with a lookout taking in the shore from Cape Porpoise to Cape Ann. Ar- ranged with this tower is a "Shute the Shute" to the grove about five hundred feet away. In the grove, which is the corner of spruce, will be seats and ac- commodations for excursionists where they can enjoy the picnic basket. In the Wal- nut grove adjoining will be arranged an open stage where a choice program of vaudeville entertainment with an entire change of program every week.

These performances will take place every afternoon and evening, weather permitting during the season. A band will every day and evening give concerts. It is safe to say that this attraction will be one of the most popular about Portsmouth for ladies and children who desire to spend a few hours at York Beach during the heated sea son.

The people of York Beach locality are much pleased with the idea of the pleasure ground as it will be managed by H. E. Evans which means a success from the start and will be run in a way that no objectionable feature will be allowed.

WITH THE POLICE.

News and Notes Picked Up at Police Headquarters Election Day

The police officers had a long siege of it in the last two days, being on duty nearly thirty-six hours at a stretch. On coming off duty yesterday morning they were assigned to the several polling places and were kept there until nearly time to go on duty again last evening. Very little trouble was experienced around town, although the usual number of election day drunks.

The first arrest was made in the afternoon, when word came to the police station that a fellow was causing a disturbance on Water street. Assistant Marshal West investigated the case and soon after returned with William Martin who was booed for trial.

A stranger, who gave the name of William D. Gilbert, was the next man brought in. He was found freaking at the depot by Marshal Eastwistle and Officer Shannon.

Officer Burns picked up James Wier drunk on Penhallow street late in the evening and locked him up for safe keeping.

Owen Harrington, who claims Dover as his home, was arrested on Congress street by Officer Shannon, who found the man begging a nickel or dime from every one he met.

The Republican Mayor Elect

John S. Tilton, the mayor elect, was born in Chester, N. H., April 12, 1845. When he was three years old his parents moved to this city, and he has since resided here. His early education was gained in the public schools of this city, graduating from the high school at 16. On leaving school he started to learn the harness making trade, but shortly afterward went to New Haven to attend a business college. On his return to this city he at first engaged in the grocery business in company with his father. After being in business about three years their place of business was destroyed by fire, and shortly afterward Mr. Tilton returned to his trade, and after working at it several years he purchased the business from his employer, King Strong, and since then has conducted it.

He married Miss Abbie Burtin July 4, 1868, and has four sons and one daughter. Mr. Tilton is popular in secret societies, being a member of Dan on lodge, 9, Knights of Pythias; St. Andrew's lodge, A. F. and A. M.; New Hampshire lodge, O. O. F.

In 1879 and 1880 he was a member of the common council, and he has just completed a two years' term as alderman from ward 2. During the present election road fight he was one of the five aldermen who stood him in his favor, and he attained considerable popularity by his course.

Election of Officers

At the annual meeting of the Sunday school board of the Methodist church, Monday evening, the election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: senior department: Superintendent, L. E. Logg; assistant superintendent, G. B. Hadwick; secretary, James Jamson; treasurer, Emus Riley; librarian, John Cornell; assistant librarian, Arthur Rand. Junior department: Superintendent, Rev. William Warren; assistant superintendent, Clara McIntire. There was an excellent attendance, and much interest was manifested in the work and progress of the Sunday school.

Presentations

General Gilman Marston Command U. V. U., held its regular monthly meeting and smoke talk last evening. After the regular routine business had been completed Comrade George L. F. Harriman stepped forward and in behalf of Comrade George R. Rait presented the equestrian with a fine crayon portrait of that comrade, which was accepted by Col. Churchill in a neat and appropriate speech.

A Good Son of Good Parents

"Woods is a man who will give Manager Burns no trouble on the score of discipline. He neither swears, smokes, drinks nor clevs. He was asked today by one of the older men to go into the smoking car and get better acquainted. The model young man replied: 'I would rather not, the tobacco smoke gives me a headache.'"—Concord Monitor.

BIG REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

The Party Elects John S. Tilton Mayor, the First Republican Mayor In 17 Years

Election one of the Quietest Known in Years and the Only Excitement of the Day Prevailed Down in Ward Four—Electric Railroad Issue Cuts a Large Figure in the Great Republican Victory.

For the first time in seventeen years Portsmouth has elected a republican mayor by the largest majority ever given a member of that party for mayor. The city went republican with such a vote as to leave no doubt of the interest of the voters. The election was quiet in many respects but there was a good vote and the men exerted the right of suffrage without any trouble, and with a free and unhampered will. The voters entered the polling places quietly, cast their ballots and then walked quietly away making no comment, and when the votes were counted last evening the result caused no surprise as the majority had been set as high as 400 by conservative men of both parties.

The electric railroad question figured largely in the result and while both tickets represented the same electric railroad plans, as a matter of fact, yet the voters were suspicious and they were fearful that some job might be on so that the men who had openly pledged themselves received the votes of the people regardless of party feeling. Politics for the time were laid aside and the voters cast their ballots as they had been told was for their interest. It was a big victory for the republicans and when the exact figures were announced there was rejoicing among them. That ward three elected the republican ticket and that ward five was only saved to the democrats by a small majority showed the strength of the tide.

The friends of mayor-elect Tilton have showered him with congratulations and his victory is one that he may well feel proud of. His record as alderman for two years and his known position, coupled with his large acquaintance and good record, gave him many democratic votes.

The best of good feeling prevailed at the polling places and the following result tells the whole story:

John S. Tilton's majority, 497.

Tried the Hand Tub.

The veteran firemen gave their old hand tub "Piscataqua" a trial on the parade yesterday afternoon. A crowd of several hundred people gathered around and watched the proceedings with much interest. It was intended only as a test to see if the pumps worked all right, and not an attempt to make a record. Nevertheless, the boys worked at the brakes manfully, and without any effort on their part worked up a pretty fair stream. The pumps worked in excellent shape and the "Vets" lumbered up, perfectly satisfied with their first trial.
